TexShare Value Report

Texas A&M University Commerce
Commerce, TX | Report date: June 2023

About TexShare

TexShare is a consortium of Texas libraries joining together to share print and electronic materials, purchase online resources, and leverage local support and expertise for the benefit of all Texans. TexShare programs are funded in part by a grant from the US Institute of Museum and Library Services to the Texas State Library and Archives Commission.

Did You Know?

TexShare was founded in 1988 by 53 public colleges and universities. Independent colleges and universities and community colleges joined in 1997, public libraries in 1999, and libraries of clinical medicine in 2001.

TexShare Databases Program

The TexShare Databases Program allows libraries to provide authoritative and ad-free electronic articles, books, tutorials, and other resources to their patrons 24/7. The TexShare Databases are licensed for the exclusive use of TexShare libraries and their patrons.

Resources included in the TexShare Databases Program provide broad coverage in the areas of business, literature, science, health and medicine, genealogy, and job and career development.

Databases Program Reminder

Libraries that participate in the TexShare Databases Program are reminded that TexShare access to EBSCOhost databases will end August 31, 2023. Access to LearningExpress Library, Job & Career Accelerator, and PrepSTEP products will continue under current contracts.

Other Resource Sharing Programs

The TexShare Card Program provides library patrons with the privilege of visiting 491 public, academic, and medical libraries throughout Texas to borrow books and other physical materials not available at their home libraries. In FY 2022 (the last full year for which data are available), more than 14,000 patrons used their TexShare Cards to borrow nearly 350,000 items from participating libraries.

The TexShare Card Program complements traditional Interlibrary Loan. The Texas State Library and Archives Commission's Navigator ILL program for public libraries supplied more than 186,000 books, articles, and other items to Texas library patrons in FY 2022.
